

I deal with many people in literally life and death situations. I would like to change cell phone plans, because the company I have the account with does not offer the best deal for my needs. I have been reluctant to change companies ONLY because I would have to change cell phone numbers and the fear that someone who needs me could not get through to me.

Cell phone number is the only answer. Please approve this requirement.

Thank you,